PHONE AND EMAIL DISTRIBUTION CONSENT

In accordance with the current BC Government Personal Information and Protection Act (PIPA), the Canadian Home Owners Association (CHOA) has advised that in order to share information with other owners within your Strata Plan all owners must sign a consent form indicating their wishes. The purpose of the consent will be for internal use only and will not be distributed to non-owners.

I/we the Owners of the above mentioned Strata Lot:

- ☐ Consent to share my/our phone number(s) and/or email address(es) to other owners within my/our above named Strata Corporation.
- ☐ DO NOT consent to share my/our phone number(s) and/or email address(es).

ELECTRONIC DELIVERY CONSENT

Pursuant to s. 61 of the Strata Property Act, notices and other records or documents may only be delivered in person or by mail unless otherwise permitted under the Bylaws of the Strata Corporation. For electronic notice of General Meetings, all content, including resolutions, agenda and reports are still included, and the notice period of 20 days still applies.

If permitted under the Bylaws of my/our above named Strata Corporation, I/we the Owners of the above mentioned Strata Lot:

- ☐ Consent to receive all written notices or documents via electronic means at the email address(es) and/or phone numbers listed above, IN LIEU of paper documents that would normally be mailed. I/we agree to keep the Alliance Strata Property Services updated with any changes to this information.
- ☐ DO NOT consent to receive written notices or documents via electronic means.
